A GARRISON FINISH

Won the Wheeling-Washington Ball Game for the Senators Yesterday Afterno m-A Crowd of 1,500 Fans saw Visions of Victory.

A crowd of 1,500 enthusiastic fans went to the Island ball park yesterday afternoon, and during eight and one-half innings of the game between the Wheeling Inter-staters and the Wash-ington big league team, reveied in vis-ions of victory for the Stogles, but the visitors came up in their half of the ninth and rapped out enough hits off Parvin's delivery to score four runs, just enough to give them the coveted

The game was one of great excite-The game was one of great excitement from start to finish. The Washingtons put in three pitchers, Mercer, McFarland and Dineen, each pitching three innings, and a remarkable coincidence was that the Stogles hit each of the trio for five hits. Parvin pitched for the Stogles, and was very effective until the ninth. Most of the hits scored off him were scratch singles, or infield bunts, in which the Senators are very proficient.

wheeling opened up with a score in the first inning, Dobbs reaching first on Mercer's error, going to third on Denny Lyons' clean single, and scoring on Poole's outfield fly to Slagle. Again, in the third, the Stogles got in the game. Parvin surprised the crowd by rapping out a good hard single, and on Lyons' second hit in succession, he traveled around to third, and Donahue's fine base hit to right field scored both runners.

around to third, and Donature's fine base hit to right field scored both runners.

In their baif of the third, Washington got a bunch of two, on Roach's bunt, Slagle's sacrifice, McGraw's scratch single and Stafford's base hit.

McFarland replaced Mercer in the fourth, and the Stogles opened up on him savagely. Strang hit for a base, but was retired at second on Leahy's infield hit. Then Cote hit for a base, but was retired at second scored Cote with the second run of the inning.

Washington came within one of tieing in the fifth, when Slagle's bunt, McGann's single, a stolen base and Freeman's two-bager, scored two runs.

Wheeling forged ahead in the eighth. With Strang an out for uninentional interference with a beautiful bunt, Leahy hit out for two bases, Cote singled, and Parvin hit for an out at first on which Leahy scored. Dobbs drew a base on balls, the only one of the game, by the way, and Lyons third hit scored Cote.

Washington got one in the eighth on Discens life at first, Poole's error and Dineen's single.

Wheeling's last run was scored in the Washington got one in the eighth on O'Brien's life at first, Poole's error and Dineen's single.

Wheeling's lest run was scored in the ninth on Donahue's two-bagger, Lytle's out at first and Strang's fly to O'Brien in left garden. The visitors came upsmiling in their half of the ninth and won out by a protty batting rally at Parvin's expense. With Slagle an out, McGann hit for three bases in left. If Strang hadn't that bad ankle it would have been an out, and doubtless Wheeling would have won the game, but as it was Strang was unable to get near the ball which rolled out to the fence. Freeman hit out with terrific force to right, the ball clearing the fence by eight or ten feet, but it was foul, greatly to the delight of the crowd. Freeman then sent a slow one to short, which Leshy was unable to field in time for the out, and McGann scored. More trouble came when Stafford singled, sending Freeman to third. Then Barry batted a hot one to Poole, which bounded bad and rolled into short left, pillowing Freeman and Stafford to score the runs that tied the score. O'Brien ended the agony by hitting out for two bases, soring Barry with the winning run. Score: WHEELING. AB, R. B.H. FÖ, A. E. AB, R. BH. PO. A. E. WHEELING.

pitch for the Stogies, unless one of the new pitchers the management is after reports, in which event Whissen will not officiate. For the New Castles, Wadsworth and Figgemier will likely do the twirling.

Youngstown lost to Mansfield yester-day, and the gap between the Stogies and McAleer's team is now narrowed down to such a point that the Stogies can pass them to-day if two victories are won from the Quakers.

Toledo finally braced up and won from Dayton. And poor old Spring-field took a game from Fort Wayne. Wonder how Jack Glasscock feels about it?

Wheeling plays two championship games with the Youngstowns at Can-ton, Sunday. This makes three double-headers in succession—and with only four pitchers on the staff.

The Washington players were out for that game with a vengeance. Maybe it didn't look like it in the fifth inning when Umpire Hamm called Freeman out at third and the visitors practically mobbed the official. Officer Shields was called out on the field and quieted down the cotterie of rowdies who were jostling Hamm about at a lively rate.

CUP GOES TO CHICAGO.

The Genesee Wins the Canadian Yacht Tropby, Taking the Third Race With Easo. TOHONTO, Aug. 24.—The Canada's cup goes to Chicago. The third race for the trophy between Beaver and Genesee was you by the latter by 10 minutes and 47 seconds.

The wind at the start was about

The wind at the start was about southeast. It was light, blowing about six miles per hour, and continued much the same throughout the race, although about 1 o'clock it looked as if the race would not be finished within the lime limit, five hours and three-quarters. The breeze, which had died down at this time, treshened up sgals, however, and the finish was in plenty of time. The race was a victory for the American boat from the very start and Skipper Jarvis, of the Beaver, the Canadian defender, admitted after the race that the Genesse was the better boat in the light breeze which had prevaled throughout the contests.

There were prospects of the wind freshening just before the start, but it was quite steady at 10 o'clock. The first gun was fired at 19-45. This was the sarilest start made during the racos. The big Pathfinder was again the judges' boat. She fired a warning gun at 11-55 a. m. and sent the racers over the line at 11-15.

There was the usual clever manoeuvreing at the start, but Ekipper Jarvis, of the Beaver, got the weather position and cronsed just nine seconds after gun fire. He was to windward of Genessee and 11 seconds shead.

The two yachts went over on the starboard tack, but came about almost immediately and Genessee, although to leeward, commenced to draw ahead. In half an hour she had gained sufficiently to cross her opponent's bow and take up a leading position. Once this was gained, she was never headed.

Genessee's marvellous windward qualities in a light breeze were again in evidence in the heat of seven miles. The course to-day was a triangular one, 21 miles around, like the course on Tuesday. The first seven miles was a beat to windward, the next leg a broad reach, and the third leg a close reach back. It was in the windward work that Beaver, the much-vaunted windjammer, lost most heavily. Her working jib was taken of sund another big reaching jib was substituted, but it was of no use, and Genesee rounded the buoy with a lead of over ten minutes. Beaver struck a weak spot in the very light breeze and was much slower in getting around the buoy. Spinnakers were not used on the next leg, as the breeze was not far enough aft, but big balloon jibs felf forward from each racer, almost drooping into the water. Beaver held Genesee fairly well on her favorite point of salling, but the Challenger gained somewhat in this leg also and had a lead of about 14 minutes when the two bouts rounded the second buoy, which bore about southwest by west.

When sheets were hauled in for the close reach back, the breeze frashened and the Canadian boat commenced to pick up. She covered the lists leg of the t

BOXING.

"Jack' 'McClelland, the local featherweight, accompanied by his manager, erweight, accompanied by his manager, "Billy" Corcoran, arrived in Pittsburgh from Chicago yesterday afternoon, says the Pittsburgh Times. McClelland will start training to-day for his twenty-round bout with "Joe" Hopkins at Wheeling on September 7. While in Chicago the local boxer kept himself in walks and condition by taking long walks and rowing. He gained some weight while there, but will have no trouble getting down to the required 128 pounds, at which he is to fight Hopkins. Before leaving Chicago for home Manager Cor-coran posted a $50 forfelt for McClelland's appearance at the Star theater in that city for a six-round contest with "Eddie" Santry, on September 15. The Pelican club, of Brooklyn, telegraphed Pelican club, of Brooklyn, telegraphed McClelland at Chicago last Sunday, asking him if he could arrange to meet "Marty" McCue before that club next Saturday night, but the telegram was delayed until it was too late to make arrangements to go east. In case McClelland secures a decision over Santry he will be matched with one of the leading featherweights of the country. The local man feels satisfied that he will get the decision over Hopkins, and if he does and later defeats Santry he will be in a position to make lucrative matches thereafter.

"Yank" Kenny, "Bob" Fitzsimmons's sparring partner, and "Jack" Bonner, of Summit Hill, Pa., have been match-ed to box twenty-five rounds before the Coney Island Sporting Club on Monday night. They will fight at catch weights.

Articles were signed by "Eddie" Santry and "Jack" McClelland yesterday for their six-round bout at the Star theater on September 15. Each man has a match in the meantime, Santry meets "Tommy" White at Dubuque and McClelland tackles "Joe" Hopkins at Wheeling.—Chicago Times-Herald.

That light contract is still the topic of conversation among the people here. The excuse of councilmen for their action is that if encourages competition, whereas, if the Bellafra company had got the contract the new plant would not have been built. This is interpreted to mean that advertising for bids did not mean what it appeared and there is more than the usual sharp criticism. There is no longer doubt that the councilmen will be taken into court on this matter and some of the members on other matters. This declaration was made yesterday by a tax-payer and stockholder in the old gas and electric company. It is alleged that three or four of the councilmen would have voted against the award but for the knowledge that they had six sure things in the vote. Whatever the outcome it will be watched with interest.
